

If someday I should slip away,
And neglect to say “good-bye,”
If you should come and find my home
and belongings all away;
If there were words I left unsaid,
And deeds I didn’t do;
If I always planned to show sometime
How much I thought of you;
And if I didn’t thank you
When the time was opportune,
I really didn’t realize
I’d be leaving quite so soon.
If you were hoping for a note
And I failed to keep in touch,
Remember, with all my heart
I love you very much.
And if my friends should weep, and say
This is a disappointment;
Just tell them that I have gone to keep
A divinely planned appointment.
